THE LAWYERS WHO OTHER LAWYERS HIRE.

In the 10 years that they've been together, Geoffrey W. Anderson and Guy H. Riddle have demonstrated that they can successfully set and achieve goals for clients of any size, from major corporations to individuals. This quality is why their practice has grown through client and attorney referrals—not advertising. Anderson and Riddle lead the eight-attorney firm of Anderson, Riddle & Kuehler, a civil trial and appellate practice that represents clients in Texas and other states. The attorneys' talents have been lauded in Texas Lawyer and by other notable organizations. Clients and other lawyers often refer others to them with this advice: "If you want results, call Anderson, Riddle & Kuehler."
